

Martha L. Hutzelman is Chair-Elect of Employee Benefits Committee of the American Bar Association Taxation Section in 2012 - 2013

Martha L. Hutzelman is honored to be selected as Chair-Elect of the Employee Benefits Committee of the American Bar Association Taxation Section during 2012-2013. As one of the largest committees of the ABA Taxation Section, the Employee Benefits Committee is responsible for presenting three live continuing legal education (CLE) programs annually, submitting comments in response to governmental agency regulatory proposals and participating in CLE teleconferences and other programs presented by the ABA Joint Committee on Employee Benefits.